OneStream Software Expands Executive Team with New VP of Sales

ROCHESTER, MICHIGAN—(August, 2016)—Today OneStream Software LLC announced that Ken Hohenstein, Managing Director EPM & Analytics of Huron Consulting Group, has joined OneStream as Vice President of Sales

"I'm delighted to have Ken join the OneStream team," says Craig Colby, Chief Revenue Officer, of OneStream Software. "Ken is an extraordinary leader with a proven track record for success. In addition to his extensive sales leadership experience in the finance industry, he shares our passion for Corporate Performance Management Software. He places the same strong emphasis on customer success and referenceability that have been the hallmark of OneStream's corporate culture. Ken's appointment will help us continue our successful growth and global expansion."

Ken has been an executive in the Corporate Performance Management (also called CPM/EPM) and Analytics industry for approximately 20 years. In his most recent role he was a Managing Director at Huron Consulting Group. At Huron Ken led the entire Oracle EPM & Analytics business, the largest Oracle (Hyperion) EPM & Analytics consulting organization in North America. Prior to Huron, Ken held various executive leadership positions at both Hyperion and Oracle. He spent several years as the Area Vice President of Sales for both organizations and then led the Oracle analytics team for the US as Group Vice President. Ken has a passion for translating technology to customer success and improving their business performance. Ken is a graduate of The University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Isenberg School of Management.

"I am profoundly honored to join OneStream and look forward to working with the other members of the team," says Hohenstein. "I have always admired innovative solutions and OneStream's Corporate Performance Management platform has changed the game for the Office of Finance. I hope to further enrich the customer experience and contribute to OneStream's continued success and leadership in the CPM arena."
