OneStream Software Holds Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony for New Michigan Headquarters

ROCHESTER, MICHIGAN—(October, 2015)— OneStream Software, a privately held software company specializing in a unified corporate performance management platform, celebrated the opening of their new headquarters on Friday, October 9, 2015, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony hosted by the Rochester Chamber of Commerce. Tom Shea, president of OneStream Software, along with other OneStream employees welcomed local dignitaries, community vendors and customers to the open house celebration.

Work on the new 22,000sf facility began in the fall of 2014 and was completed this summer. In addition to the open office space the facility houses an impressive sports court, golf simulator, coffee shop, training center and lounge area, and has plans to include an employee gym. OneStream CEO Tom Shea spoke on behalf of all OneStream employees to thank the following local businesses in the community who helped create and complete the new state-of-the-art facility:

Fieldstone A&E, LLC
Bloomingdale Construction
Handy Andy Services
Perfect Floors
Discount Office Equipment, Inc.
Superior Lock & Key
Michigan Glass Coatings
Art Van at Great Lakes Crossing

Following the ribbon-cutting ceremony attendees were ushered in to the new headquarters and treated to music, wine from FieldStone Winery, hors d'oeuvres from Penny Black, Denton coffee and mini-cupcakes provided by The Cupcake Station.

OneStream Software was founded in 2010 by Tom Shea, Craig Colby and Bob Powers, all pioneers in the financial data quality and consolidation market. OneStream employs more than 50 people and has a 100% customer success rate. The opening of the new facility marks OneStream's continued successful growth both locally and globally.
