Changing and Growing With You

Volunteer Auxiliary

Hospital volunteers are very special people dedicated to helping others.

Our volunteers are an integral part of Lane Regional Medical Center and receive satisfaction providing many services:

- Helping the sick and their families
- Contributing to mankind
- Being of service to our community
- Satisfaction from helping others

"The Auxiliary exists only for the hospital, which exists only for the patients."

Volunteer Benefits

- Awards and Recognition
- TB Screening Test
- Employee Activities
- Meeting new people and making new friends
- Developing new interests

The smiles and kindness of our volunteers are reminders to our patients of the excellent care received at Lane.

You are Invited to Join

The Board of Directors and the membership of the Lane Regional Medical Center Volunteer Auxiliary invite you to join us.

Due are only $4 per year.

Auxiliary members contribute to Lane in many ways, such as distributing ice, water, mail and magazines, and assisting at the information desk, in waiting rooms, the emergency room and the nursing home.

They also manage and operate the Gift Shop, which donates all proceeds for specific hospital needs.
