WAYS TO GIVE

Gifts of Cash

Designations of cash, pension plans, life insurance policies, collectibles, jewelry, and vehicles are the most direct methods to give or establish a permanent endowment fund that continues to give for years to come.

Gifts of Securities

A gift of appreciated securities, bonds or mutual fund shares is an easy way to show your support and maximize tax savings.

Gifts of Real Estate

A personal residence, farm, vacation home, commercial building or undeveloped land may be given in whole or in part using various tax-advantage methods.

Life Estate

If you have real estate and wish to continue use of the property, this is a great option while generating financial and tax benefits.

Life Income Arrangements

Gift Annuities, Charitable Remainder Trusts and Charitable Lead Trusts allow philanthropists to give, and also receive, income for life which may benefit the donor, a spouse or other beneficiary.
