

CATERING

Success is in the details.

We know that you are passionate about providing your clients with exceptional catering experiences, making sure each and every detail is perfect. We are just as passionate and detail oriented when it comes to our work. Let our expert staff tackle your accounting and tax challenges, so you can focus on what you do best.

CRR has helped many clients in the restaurant and catering industry, providing not only accounting and tax expertise, but business consulting and strategic planning services to maximize return on investment.

We can assist you in many ways, including:

Accounting, auditing, tax planning and return preparation services.

Compliance and financial audits.

Budgeting + forecasting.

Multi-state taxation.

Representation with federal, state, and local tax authorities.

Year-end tax planning and review of transactions for tax implications.

Strategic business planning.
