

Confirmation of Future Attendance

Student Notification:

Withdrawal from class may result in a recalculation of your financial aid eligibility requiring the return of a portion of your funding (please review www.saintleo.edu/R2T4). Financial Aid is awarded based on the number of credit hours a student enrolls in and attends.

Please confirm that you are planning to attend the next term for which you are currently enrolled.

When a recalculation of your financial aid is necessary, you will receive notification via email within 45 days of the date SLU is notified of the withdrawal.
