

McGRATH INSTITUTE FOR CHURCH LIFE

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME

SUMMER 2019

LITURGY Week

JUNE 17-20, 2019

Liturgy and the Domestic Church

Liturgy Week is a 4-day conference on the beautiful Notre Dame campus that provides continuing education for Catholic leaders in the area of liturgical and sacramental formation.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ Learn how to integrate liturgical celebration with the daily life of the domestic church.
- ◆ Attend keynote addresses by bishops, theologians and nationally-renowned experts in liturgical and sacramental education.
- ◆ Select from tracks in liturgical formation, sacramental preparation, liturgical music and catechesis.
- ◆ Connect with your peers working in parishes, dioceses and campus ministries across the nation.

VISIT MCGRATH.ND.EDU/LITURGYWEEK TO LEARN MORE OR REGISTER

Early-bird discounts through April 6, 2019. Housing not included; space is limited.

KEYNOTE SESSIONS

The Pastoral State of the Family Today presented by Archbishop José Gomez

Liturgical Practice, Ethics, and Spirituality in the Family
Nichole Flores, University of Virginia

A Liturgical-Sacramental Theology of the Family
Timothy O'Malley, McGrath Institute for Church Life

The Place of Technology in the Domestic Church
Brett Robinson, McGrath Institute for Church Life

A Sociological Analysis of Marriage and Family
W. Bradford Wilcox, National Marriage Project

WORKSHOP TRACKS Liturgy Week participants will select from one of the following four workshop tracks:

Sacramental Preparation

Learn approaches to sacramental formation that incorporate the whole person.

Catechesis

Explore ways to incorporate literature into youth and young adult catechesis.

Liturgical Music

Discover new methods of music ministry that invite participation from the entire family.

Liturgical Formation

Learn to form families in the liturgical prayer of the Church at the parish and in the home.

By connecting the Catholic intellectual life at Notre Dame to the life of the Church, the McGrath Institute for Church Life forms faithful Catholic leaders for service to the Church and the world.

Liturgy Week participants will receive a certificate of completion of ongoing formation and continuing education, accompanied by a detailed content outline, which can be applied to diocesan requirements for continuing education and ongoing formation.