About Berkshire

Berkshire Associates Inc. is a human resource consulting and technology firm, specializing in affirmative action, applicant management, compensation management, workforce analytics, diversity, and professional training. For 35 years, Berkshire has been committed to helping companies find cost-effective solutions to everyday human resource challenges. We deliver solutions that successfully and continually improve human resource practices and procedures.

All training programs are developed by experienced human resource professionals and subject matter experts using the highest quality standards. Our expert consultants provide progressive training on the most important aspects of the industry, including regulation changes and trends. We are HR professionals, so we understand what other HR professionals need to thrive in their workplace.

Committed to giving HR professionals the tools they need to achieve the best results possible, we have expanded our signature training classes to include a collection of online learning options. Now you have access to the same great content and expertise, with more choices designed to suit your needs. Choose from various delivery options to learn on your time, at your pace, and wherever you choose. On the next pages you will find detailed descriptions of Berkshire's training delivery options. If you need further information, please contact Berkshire at 800.882.8904 or bai@berkshireassociates.com.

We are conveniently located near the Baltimore-Washington International Airport, midway between Baltimore, Maryland's famous Inner Harbor and our nation's capital, Washington, D.C.

eLearn from your desk

For organizations who want to manage corporatewide training, eLearning helps to: monitor training, document completed training, identify who has not taken training, distribute communications to learners, and record acknowledgment and acceptance of training courses.

Monitor and manage training from your desk

All eLearning courses are on a user-friendly Learning Management System (LMS) that gives easy access to all your course and learner information. You can register for one course for an individual learner, or purchase multiple seats for organization-wide training.

Protect your organization from liability

Berkshire's eLearning courses help organizations manage training, and are designed to reduce liability in areas where employers are most vulnerable. Informed employees make better decisions and are less likely to exhibit behaviors that put your organization at risk.

Scalable training options

Classes can be taken by one person or as many learners as you have in your organization. The courses can also be distributed based on levels or learner types.

Benefits of Berkshire's eLearning courses:

- Improved management of training employees
- Easy tracking and reporting when using LMS
- Consistency in training content for employees
- Up-to-date content designed by subject matter experts
- Compelling and interactive training means greater retention of material
- Document acknowledgment and acceptance of training and/or policies
- Employees receive personalized certificate of completion
- Content can be customized based on organization's needs

Affirmative Action eLearning Courses

Berkshire's Affirmative Action eLearning courses are specially designed for organizations who are federal contractors. These courses cover regulations required and enforced by Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP). Backed by Berkshire's powerful LMS, these classes can be taken by individual learners or deployed across departments, locations, or throughout the organization.

Affirmative Action Training

Affirmative Action Planning

Our affirmative action training classes, including our popular Affirmative Action Boot Camp, help HR professionals make the right decisions when handling OFCCP regulations. Attendees who receive Berkshire training become an invaluable asset to their organization; assisting with effectively managing the entire compliance process. Most Berkshire training classes are eligible for recertification credits.

Fundamentals of Affirmative Action Planning

This class is designed to provide attendees with comprehensive training on federal regulations governing affirmative action (AA), the affirmative action plan (AAP) preparation process, and Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) audits. Berkshire's AA specialists will show participants how to prepare statistical reports and narratives. Various dates and delivery options are available to accommodate your busy schedule.

Who should participate

AA/EEO managers, human resources (HR) professionals, diversity officers, and managers with hiring responsibilities.

How you will benefit

Participants gain in-depth knowledge of the federal regulations that require organizations to prepare an AAP. Facilitated by top AA specialists, participants are guided through the statistical and narrative portions of an AAP. Learn what to expect from OFCCP, and how to survive an OFCCP audit.

Recertification Credits

This class is eligible for 14 HRCI recertification credits for PHR, SPHR, and GPHR, and 12 SHRM credits towards SHRM-CP or SHRM-SCP.

Topics Covered

- Overview of Affirmative Action
- Creating a Written Affirmative Action Plan (AAP)
- Analyzing Your Workforce
- Calculating Availability and Setting Goals
- Developing Applicant Flow Using OFCCP Definition of an Applicant
- Analyzing Your Personnel Actions
- Preparing Narratives for Minorities and Women, Protected Veterans, and Individuals with Disabilities
- Implementing and Communicating Your AAP
- OFCCP Audit Process
