David Lowenstein joined Goodman Allen Donnelly's Veterans Benefit Group in January 2009 following eight years as an Appellate Attorney in the Office of the VA General Counsel (serving four of those years as a Senior Appellate Attorney) where he represented the Secretary of Veterans Affairs before the U. S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. With extensive experience in the VA adjudicative process, involving all aspects of disability entitlement, David brings a unique understanding and compelling perspective to the representation of Veterans and their families in their disability benefits claims.
