

Jack and the Beanstalk is a fairytale story about a poor country boy, who trades the family cow for a handful of magic beans. They grow into an enormous beanstalk and reach into the clouds. Jack climbs the beanstalk and finds himself in the castle of an unfriendly giant. New characters will appear in this expansion of a classic fairytale. The production will be directed by two Martin Luther High School students and will delight audience members of all ages.

Join us for our ninth annual Dinner Theater in Martin Luther's WFAC. Dinner, catered by The Pulaski Inn, includes crusted parmesan chicken, smashed potatoes, mac & cheese, vegetable medley, salad, Italian bread, fruit, dessert, and drinks.

*Seating for dinner begins at 5:00 p.m. and dinner service begins at 5:30.
General seating begins at 5:45, with a curtain time of 6:00.*

Please avoid phone orders and use this order form or order by email. Payment must accompany your order. No tickets will be given—your order reserves you a seat at a table! Please identify people you wish to sit with under the "comments" section. Maximum number at a table is 4.

Reservations are due Friday, January 17th

Advanced tickets required—no walk-ins!

Dinner Theater Date: Saturday, January 25
