Tea Time with Mogogo

Summer is the perfect time to experiment with food service presentation. Warmer weather means patio seating, lingering dinners amongst friends, and changing menus. With rounded corners, a built-in bumper system, heavy duty casters, and the same high-quality bamboo shelving that makes Mogogo beautiful, the Mogogo service cart creates the flexibility needed to experiment in food presentation and delivery. Table side tea service, a rolling dessert selection, even mobile mixology, are all possible with the Mogogo service cart.

Winner, Winner!

NARA is a 2017 Red Dot Design Award winner! These awards, awarded annually since 1955, are established internationally as one of the most sought-after quality marks for good design. NARA won this year's distinction in the Tableware category. The judges noted that "the quality craftsmanship of this stoneware collection for the use in gastronomy is underlined by a highly self-reliant aesthetic."

The Plating Game

Maria Iuppa, Katie Connelly, and Mike Hewitt took a step back in time at the Ed Don Supplier Show June 29 – July 1. "Game On" was the theme, and this team delivered with The Plating Game. Inspired by the 70's show, The Dating Game, The Plating Game featured an Edward Don rep as the bachelor(ette) looking for the perfect product for their end users. As you can probably guess, this was a fun, interactive way to share all of the benefits of BauscherHepp products while also taking a trip down fashion memory lane.
