

TekSavvyGo to Vancouver Contest Rules

The TekSavvyGo to Vancouver contest is a random draw for a single prize package. You don't need to buy or pay anything to enter the TekSavvyGo to Vancouver contest, and no payment information is required – for this, or any other TekSavvy contest.

If you do enter, though, you agree to be bound by these Rules and by TekSavvy's decisions, which are final in all respects.

The Contest is open to legal residents in a Canadian province or territory other than Quebec (Quebec residents are invited to participate in a dedicated Quebec contest here!). The Contest is for participants who have reached the age of majority where they reside: 18 in most of Canada, but 19 in in British Columbia, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, and the three territories. If you are younger than that, you cannot enter.

The Contest is TekSavvy's. It has nothing to do with Pokémon Company International, Inc., Nintendo Co., Ltd., Nintendo of America Inc., Niantic, Inc., Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc., Google Inc., Apple Inc. Facebook, or Twitter. They don't know about it, they haven't been asked about it, and they aren't sponsoring, endorsing, or administering it. You are providing your information to TekSavvy, not to any of these parties.

In these Rules, we use words like "you" and "us". By "TekSavvy", "we", and "us", we mean TekSavvy Solutions Inc. (800 Richmond Street, Chatham, Ontario, N7M 5J5), affiliated companies, and all of their officers, directors, employees, representatives, and agents. By "you" and "your" we mean someone who is eligible to, and does, participate in this Contest. And, by "Contest", we mean the TekSavvyGo to Vancouver contest.

1. What personal information are you storing or passing on? To whom are you passing it on?

The email address, along with other information you provide to enter the contest (name, city, and province of residence) you provide to enter the contest is collected by TekSavvy, and we'll only use it for administering the contest. Elsewhere, you have the opportunity to ask to receive our newsletter, but that happens separately. TekSavvy collects your email address and contest entry via the contest entry page, which is hosted by HubSpot Inc. (outside Canada), who has promised us that they don't access it.

If you do opt into our newsletter – in other words, promotional communications from TekSavvy -- your email address will be shared with HubSpot Inc. (outside Canada), the platform TekSavvy uses to send promotional emails. You can always withdraw consent by clicking on the unsubscribe link in one of the promotional emails, or preempt them by emailing us at marketing@teksavvy.ca.

TekSavvy will do all of this in accordance with our privacy policy, available at <http://teksavvy.com/en/why-teksavvy/policies/privacy-policy>.

2. Am I eligible to enter the Contest?

The Contest is open to legal residents of Canada, except for residents of the province of Quebec, who have reached the age of majority in their jurisdiction of residence as of the date of entry. For example, in Ontario, the age of majority is 18.

This Contest is not open to everyone. You cannot enter, and are not eligible to win, if you, a member of your immediate family, or someone in your household is an employee, officer, director, representative or agent of:

- TekSavvy Solutions Inc. ("TekSavvy");
- an affiliate of TekSavvy's;
- an advertising or promotion agency that does work for TekSavvy; or
- any other company or individual providing goods or services for this Contest.

3. How long does the Contest run?

From August 15 through 30. More specifically, beginning on August 15, 2016 at 00:00:01 a.m. Eastern Time (ET), and ending on August 30, 2016 at 23:59:59 p.m. ET. Which is the "Contest Period".

TekSavvy's computer systems are the official timekeeping device for this Contest. The time at which an entry is received by TekSavvy will be the clock time of the TekSavvy mail server or web server that receives it.

4. How can I enter the Contest?

No purchase necessary. Internet access and email address are required. To enter, visit <https://contests.teksavvy.com/TekSavvyGO>, fill out the online entry form in full, and submit the form. A person entering must provide a valid, unique email address associated with an ICANN-reachable domain. Multiple participants can't share the same email address.

You are limited to one entry during the Contest Period.

Please don't cheat. Any attempt by a participant to enter more than once a day, such as by using multiple or different email addresses, identities, registrations and logins, or any other methods, will void that participant's entries; and that participant may be disqualified. Use of any automated system to participate is prohibited and will result in disqualification. It's not that it's impossible or even hard to do; it's that you shouldn't do it, because it isn't fair.

TekSavvy is not responsible for late, incomplete, invalid, unintelligible, or misdirected registrations. They'll be disqualified.

5. What prizes are available and what are my odds of winning?

One prize package is available, which consists of:

On August 31, 2016, a random draw will be held at TekSavvy Solutions Inc. in Chatham, Ontario at 10:00:00 a.m. E.T. The random draw selects one entry, for the prize described above. The potential winner will be selected from all eligible entries received during the Contest Period.

- (ii) correctly answer a time-limited mathematical skill-testing question to be administered by email;
- (iii) sign and return to us, within three days of it being sent by us, a written declaration and release form (the "Release Form") releasing us from any liability in connection with this Contest, confirming your compliance with the Contest rules, and acceptance of the Prize as awarded.

Return of any Prize or winner notification as undeliverable, inability to reach the selected entrant or failure of selected entrant to respond to notification within three days of our first attempt to contact; failure to provide proof of eligibility (if requested) or Release documents in a timely manner, failure to correctly answer the skill-testing question or other non-compliance with these Official Rules may result in disqualification and forfeiture of the Prize. At our sole discretion, we may redraw for an alternate eligible entrant for the forfeited Prize in accordance with these Official Rules, who will be subject to disqualification in the same manner.

The trip (flight and hotel stay) dates will be selected by the winner, and must be taken within 120 days of being verified as the winner. The other prize components (spending money and gift card) will be delivered prior to the winner's selected trip dates.

Subject to applicable law, TekSavvy's decisions as to the administration and operation of the Contest and the selection of the entrant are final and binding in all matters related to the Contest.
