SECTION 1 - INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE

Royal College of Healthcare is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (SRTOs 2015) and its State Funding Contract. As such, Royal College of Healthcare is required to have a policy and processes in place to manage and respond to complaints and appeals regarding our services, assessment outcomes, conduct of staff, learners and third party training and assessment providers who provide services on behalf of Royal College of Healthcare.

This policy is based on providing and maintaining training and assessment services that are fair and reasonable and afford a forum where issues or inadequacies can be raised and resolved.

The object of this policy is to ensure that Royal College of Healthcare staff act in a professional manner at all times. This policy provides clients with a clear process to register a complaint. It ensures all parties involved are kept informed of the resulting actions and outcomes.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all employee, partners and associates of Royal College of Healthcare (31994) in relation to handling compliant, grievances and appeals in relation to its services. The policy covers complaints involving the RTO directly, its trainer/assessors, other staff, third party associates and learners. This policy includes all regulatory requirements that fall under the RTOs obligations as a registered training organisation.

DEFINITIONS

Appeals - means a request for a decision made by the RTO to be reviewed.

Compliant - means a person's formal expression of dissatisfaction with any product or service provided by the RTO.

Complainant - means a person's formal expression of dissatisfaction with any product or service provided by the RTO.

RTO – means the Royal College of Healthcare

Services - means training, assessment, related educational and support services and/or activities related to the recruitment of prospective learners. It does not include services such as learner counselling, mediation or ICT support.

SECTION 2 - POLICY

Royal College of Healthcare acknowledges the clients' right to lodge a complaint when they are dissatisfied with the training and /or assessment services and experiences that they have been provided by Royal College of Healthcare.

Royal College of Healthcare will ensure that clients have access to a fair and equitable process for expressing complaints, and that Royal College of Healthcare will manage the complaint with fairness and equity.

In doing so, Royal College of Healthcare:

- Has written procedures in place for collecting and managing complaints in a constructive and timely manner;
- Ensures that these procedures are communicated to all staff, third party partners and clients;
- Ensures that all necessary documentation and resources are in place to enable clients to submit a complaint;
- Ensures that each complaint and its outcome is recorded in writing; and
- Ensures that customer complaints and their outcomes are fed into continuous improvement initiatives.
- Encourages Learners, wherever possible, to resolve concerns or difficulties directly with the person(s) concerned informally which means through conversation or adjustments on which both the parties agree.

These principles, which will be adhered to by Royal College of Healthcare, apply to all stages of this grievance policy and procedure:

- Develop a culture that views complaints as an opportunity to improve the business and how it operates;
- Set in place a complaints handling and resolution procedure that is Learner focused and helps the business to prevent complaints from recurring;
- Ensure that any complaints are resolved promptly, objectively and with sensitivity and with complete confidentiality;
- The Complainant and any respondent will have the opportunity to present their case at each stage of the procedure.
- The Complainant and any respondent have the option of being accompanied/assisted by a third person (such as a family member, friend or counsellor) if they so desire.
- The Complainant and any respondent will not be discriminated against or victimised.
- At all stages of the process, discussions relating to grievances and appeals will be recorded in writing. Reasons and a full explanation in writing for decisions and actions taken as part of this procedure will be provided to the Complainant and/or any respondent if requested.

- Records of all grievances will be kept for a period of five years to allow all parties to the grievance appropriate access to these records. These records will be kept strictly confidential and stored at Royal College of Healthcare. Access to these records may be requested in writing to the Chief Operating Officer.
- A Complainant shall have access to the internal stages of this grievance procedure at no cost. Costs for an external appeal will be shared equally by Royal College of Healthcare and the Complainant.
- All complaints and appeals are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable.
- The complaints policy is publicly available.
- The complaint resolution procedure emphasises mediation and education while acknowledging that in some instances formal procedures and disciplinary action may be required.
- If the complaint or appeal will take in excess of 60 calendar days to finalise Royal College of Healthcare will inform the complainant in writing providing the reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required. The complainant will also be provided with regular updates on the progress of the complaint.
- Victimisation of complainants, respondents or anyone one else involved in the complaint resolution process will not be tolerated.
- All complaints will be handled as Staff-In-Confidence and will not affect or bias the progress of the client in any current or future training.
- Clients have the right to lodge an appeal against an assessment decision if they feel they were unfairly treated during an assessment, and/or where they feel the assessment decision is incorrect and they have grounds for an appeal.
- The principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the appeal process.
- The appellant can provide detail of their appeal in writing.

Types of complaints

1.	Informal grievance
1.1	Learners who are dissatisfied in any way with the services offered by Royal College of Healthcare or a third party delivery training on Royal College of Healthcare behalf which includes but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enrolment process;</li> <li>• Orientation process;</li> <li>• Assessment decision;</li> <li>• Suspension or Cancellation of studies process;</li> <li>• Facilities provided by Royal College of Healthcare e.g. toilets, kitchen facilities, resources etc.</li> <li>• Staff member including Trainer/Assessor.</li> </ul> Learners are encouraged initially to attempt to resolve a grievance informally by talking directly with the person concerned to resolve the problem. This step is not mandatory and a Learner may proceed directly to the Formal Grievance stages.
2	Formal Grievance: Stage One

2.1	Formal grievances should be submitted in writing to the Head of Teaching and Learning at Royal College of Healthcare and address Level 6, 200 Adelaide Street Brisbane, QLD 4000 . The Complainant is invited to include suggestions about how the grievance might be resolved. The Head of Teaching and Learning will notify the Complainant of receipt of the grievance within 5 working days. The Head of Teaching and Learning or their nominee will then, if necessary, seek to clarify the outcome that the Learner hopes to achieve. At this time the Learner will be provided with an opportunity to formally present his or her case. The Head of Teaching and Learning will then assess the grievance, determine the outcome and advise the Complainant in writing of their decision within 20 working days. The Complainant will be advised of their right to access Stage Two if they are not satisfied with the outcome of Stage One.
3.	Appeals: Stage Two
3.1	If the Complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of Stage One they may lodge an appeal in writing within 20 working days of receiving the written response with the Chief Executive Officer at Royal College of Healthcare and address Level 6, 200 Adelaide Street Brisbane, QLD 4000 The Complainant’s appeal will be determined by the Chief Executive Officer or a member of the Senior Leadership Team who wasn’t involved in stage one, who will conduct all necessary consultations with the Complainant and other relevant persons and make a determination of the appeal. The Complainant will be advised in writing of the outcome of their appeal, including the reasons for the decision within 20 working days. The Complainant will be advised of their right to progress to Stage Three of the grievance procedure if they consider the matter unresolved.
4.	Independent Mediator – Stage Three
4.1	If the Complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of their appeal then an independent mediator can be requested through LEADR/ IAMA, the Association of Dispute Resolvers. Complainants can contact LEADR/ IAMA directly as follows: Address: Level 1, 13-15 Bridge Street, Sydney NSW 2000 Phone: 02 9251 3366      Freecall: 1800 651 650 Fax: 02 9251 3733      Email: infoaus@resolution.institute Royal College of Healthcare will give due consideration to any recommendations arising from the external review of the grievance within 30 days of receipt of the recommendations and the Chief Executive Officer will ensure that they are fully implemented.
5.	Further Action
5.1	If the Complainant has been through all stages of this grievance handling process and remains unsatisfied with the outcome of their grievance, then they may :
