

Cosmin Ene, Founder and CEO LaterPay

Cosmin Ene is an entrepreneurial founder with an excellent first-hand understanding of the life cycle of entrepreneurial ventures, which he has accumulated over 18 years: Startups he led went through all stages of development from initial idea to marketing and sales, including business development and financing. In 2010 Ene started LaterPay a micropayment enabler. Between 2005 and 2009, Ene was co-founder and managing director of DELUXE Television. Prior to this, he was analyst and associate at Munich-based TecVenture Partners, a venture capital investor in the IT, internet and telecommunications sector.

His speaking engagements include South by Southwest, WAN IFRA, Medientage München, Digital Innovators Summit, Ringier Management Conference, CeBIT, Hamburg Games Conference, VDZ Academy, BDZV, Medientage Nürnberg, Arvato Media Days, DSGB Innovators Club, World Business Dialogue.
