

The ERC HR Data Library

High-quality data worth thousands of dollars is available to ERC members at no cost in our HR Data Library!

Members can reserve the HR Data Library and utilize our computer to research local and national ERC data on compensation, benefits, and workplace practices and policies.

Members can also access compensation reports from the Economic Research Institute (ERI) and Comp Analyst (Salary.com) in our HR Data Library. Don't have time to visit? Contact our HR Help Desk at hrhelp@yourERC.com. Our team of friendly and responsive HR professionals will research your specific questions or refer you to an alternate internal or external resource.
