VERMONT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION MAKES DONATION TO HUMANE SOCIETY OF CHITTENDEN COUNTY

Burlington, VT – Kimberly Brown, Vice President of Branch Operations of Vermont Federal Credit Union, is pleased to announce the donation of pet supplies and $500 to the Humane Society of Chittenden County

During the month of October, Vermont Federal Credit Union held a pet supply drive in their South Burlington, Burlington and Milton branches. The Credit Union also donated $500 to benefit the Humane Society of Chittenden County. Over the course of the month members were able to drop-off items, including pet food, toys, bones and more, to be donated to the Humane Society of Chittenden Country.

Vermont Federal is a $469 million-plus financial institution, with six locations currently serving over 36,000 members. Members are part of a cooperative, meaning they share ownership in the Credit Union and elect a volunteer board of directors.

Vermont Federal Credit Union provides membership to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Chittenden, Grand Isle, Lamoille, Franklin, Washington, or Addison Counties in Vermont. Vermont Federal Credit Union is committed to providing support to the communities it serves and to make a decided difference in the lives of its members and other Vermonters.
