

6 Personnel Development Trends Maryland Construction Contractors Should Know

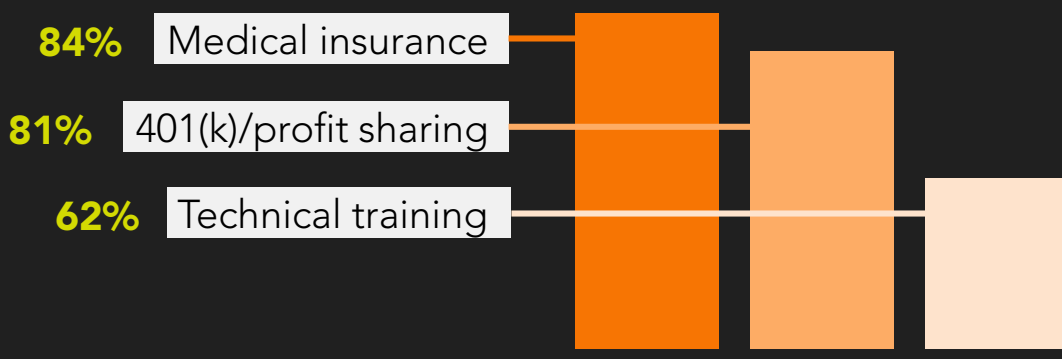

It's no secret that construction companies struggle to hold on to good employees. Here's what Maryland construction contractors had to say when asked about personnel development in the 2017 Maryland Construction Industry Survey.

34%

of contractors say the #1 reason employees leave their company is because they can get more money elsewhere

Top benefits offered

79%

of contractors say they gave salary increases in the past 12 months

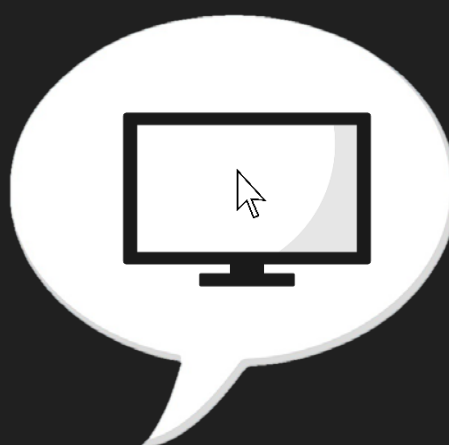

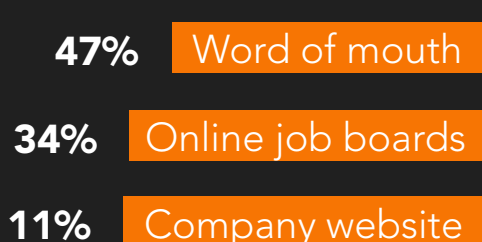

72%

of contractors give feedback to employees after every completed project

Finding new employees

We asked Maryland contractors where they find new employees when hiring

Leadership development programs

When asked how they would rank their company's leadership development programs, Maryland contractors had mixed reviews.

Want more data?

Download the 2017 Maryland Construction Industry Survey Executive Summary at: www.bit.ly/2017ExecutiveSummary.