

The Sonoma at Caminetto

London Bay's four-bedroom Sonoma single-family home offers the only two-story floor plan within 4,367 square feet of air-conditioned living space in Caminetto at Mediterra.

The Sonoma features a spacious great room, with adjoining kitchen and dining room, which opens to an intimate covered terrace, as well as an outdoor living and dining area. A bonus room with zero-corner sliding glass doors also opens to the covered outdoor living space. The upstairs, which features a loft and fourth bedroom with full bath, can include an optional wet bar and elevator.

Other optional features include a buffet and wine bar, an outdoor kitchen, a three-car or additional detached one-car garage, and numerous master suite considerations, including access to a private garden.
