

THE PAST F FUNDATION

The purpose of this document is to outline the requirements for principals and teachers participating in the Applied Learning Fellowship Cohort in regard to Transdisciplinary Problem-based Learning. As designed, the project provides immersive, engaging study guides, hands-on activities and funding for materials to spark curiosity in students. The project asks that participating schools incorporate the Design Challenges into their classrooms and provide quantitative and qualitative feedback to strengthen the impact of TPBL. The project and associated research collection and analysis are scheduled to take within September to December 2019, with the online P3 Applied course and associated workshops occurring in October 2019.

Please initial each statement below:

As a participant in the Applied Learning Fellowship Cohort project, I understand that I will be expected to attend P3: Applied online professional development and a launch workshop. During the 3 week online course I will familiarize myself with problem-based learning processes and concepts for delivering a design challenge of my design. The value of the online PD, workshop and ongoing support is $1350 per teacher.
