

HOW WE CAN HELP RECRUITMENT AGENTS IN THE MEDICAL SECTOR

At Wellers we pride ourselves on being more than just accountants. As well as offering a comprehensive accounts and tax service, we strive to provide our clients with continued and proactive tax planning advice.

Not only can we assist your clients, our package of services are designed to allow you more time to focus on generating new business for you and your clients.

What we offer you:

- An efficient set up service that includes company formation, tax registrations and assistance in setting up banking facilities. This enables contracts to be signed promptly and gives you peace of mind that your clients comply with current legislation.
- A reward scheme to agents of £75 Marks and Spencer vouchers for each client that signs up. We have an approved scheme in place so you do not need to worry about the tax implications of receiving these vouchers.
- Pro-active recommendation of your services along with sharing your contact details with our extensive portfolio of locum clients and medical professionals.

HEALTHCARE

What we offer your clients:

- An assessment of the current and forecasted financial position of your clients to determine the most tax efficient structure to operate through.
- On going tax planning advice to ensure any tax burden is minimised including a review of expenses to ensure the maximum amount of tax relief is claimed.
- Assistance with claiming national insurance repayments, where appropriate.
- All compliance work necessary such as accounts preparation, payroll administration and tax returns.
- Tax investigation insurance.
- Capital gains tax and Inheritance tax planning.

We offer this service for a straightforward fixed fee so your clients will have clarity concerning the costs of managing their finances.
