FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

Stand Up for What is Right

Over the past few months, those who have paid attention to the news have observed trends as groups of individuals all rally around a common cause. It has been observed as strong females stand up against sexual misconduct, groups oppose police brutality, and walks are coordinated to support the Pro-Life movement. However, this is nothing new. Protests for peace, civil rights activism, or even opposition to a king that started a revolution that formed this country have all been a part of our human story. Each of these is in response to a perceived or real injustice faced by a group of people.

But what is “just”? What is “right”? The definition provided by the world may differ from what God’s Word says. First, we must confess that none of us is “just” on our own. We can only rest on the grace granted to us by a merciful God through Jesus Christ. And yet, though we are sinners, we are called to act justly – to stand up for what is right.

He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:8)

What is right is to submit ourselves to the will of God in humility – to walk in His ways. We are to understand the mercy that we have received and grant it to those who are in need. It does not mean that we ignore our neighbor. Rather we stand up to help protect the dignity and reputation of all people. Out of a deep compassion for the well-being of body and soul, we as Christians stand up for what is right and support those who are in need. All actions we take flow out of our relationship with God and our genuine care for others.

Take your evil deeds out of my sight! Stop doing wrong, learn to do right! Seek justice, encourage the oppressed, defend the cause of the fatherless, plead the case of the widow. (Isaiah 1:16-17)

We are called as Christians to stand up for what is right. Not necessarily to engage in every human movement, but to advocate and fight for what is right in the eyes of our Just God. May we always Stand Firm on that which He has claimed right.

SNOW DAYS

In the event severe weather conditions would occur, please check one of the local media outlets for information on school closings. Our recommendation is that you check the WTMJ website (www.todaystmj4.com) for the earliest and most up-to-date information. Other media outlets broadcasting school closings include:

- Television: WTMJ-4, FOX-6, WISN-12, CBS-58
- Radio: 94.5 KTI Country, 620WTMJ
- Internet: fox6now.com/weather, WISN.com, cbs58.com

Since our students come from many parts of the metropolitan area, weather conditions may vary from one area to another. Please use discretion in sending your child to school even though school may be in session. A guideline to use in making your decision would be the decision that your local public school district has made. (Example: If you live in Cedarburg and the Cedarburg school district has closed due to the weather, consider keeping your child home from school that day.)

In the event that a sudden snowstorm forces school to close before the regular closing time, make certain that your child knows exactly where to go and what to do should no one be home during the school day.
