FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

Be Strong and Courageous

The theme for the next couple of weeks is to Be Strong and Courageous. Personally, this is one of my favorite pieces of Scripture. This is the command given to Joshua, the leader selected by God to succeed Moses. This powerful portion of Scripture is used in a variety of settings, but is certainly appropriate for our theme of Standing Firm.

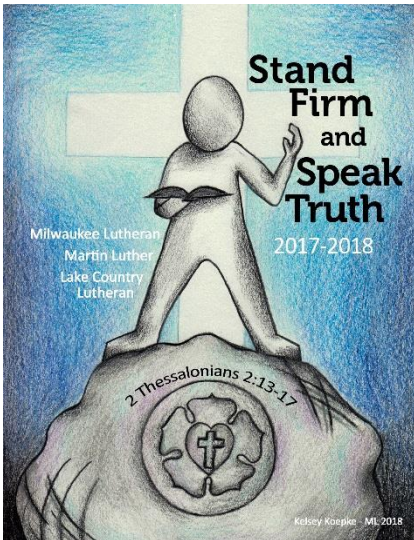

Joshua continually exhibited the traits of standing firm in the face of difficulty and challenge. Joshua was the military leader of the Israelite army as they escaped Egypt into the wilderness. Imagine forming an effective army with a bunch of bricklayers! He recognized the bounty of the land God had promised them when sent as a spy. Even as others doubted their ability to overcome the giants (or people of the land), Joshua (and Caleb) were able to recognize that God had already given it to them. Joshua would also be charged with defeating some of the most fortified cities of this new land in Jericho and Ai.

Throughout all these challenges, we can quickly recognize that it was not in Joshua's power or authority that these things were accomplished, but rather by the power of the Almighty God. Joshua's power came through God and was faithfully displayed as his complete trust was exhibited.

We too should heed the same advice. We are certainly going to face challenges in our life. Some may seem difficult, some may seem improbable, some may look impossible to overcome. In this broken world, we must learn to stand firm despite the broken relationships, the real worldly concerns, and the struggles of our sinful nature. Yet we stand and can be courageous, not because of our strength, but as we put our trust in that which is greater than us. Our God has promised that he will give us the strength we need if we keep him at the forefront of our lives.

No one will be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you. Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to your ancestors to give them. Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go. Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go. (Joshua 1:5-9)

While we may not receive all the rewards we desire on earth, God has promised that because He is faithful we will reap eternal rewards for our belief. Because of the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ, we receive the assurance that nothing in this world can separate us from Him. We have no reason to fear, no reason to be discouraged, but rather we have an incredible hope for our future. So be strong. Be courageous. Stand Firm.

SPRING MUSICAL: This year's spring musical is an adaptation of Louisa May Alcott's Little Women written by Allan Knee. Based on Louisa May Alcott's life, Little Women follows the adventures of sisters, Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy March. Jo is trying to sell her stories for publication, but the publishers are not interested – her friend, Professor Bhaer, tells her that she has to do better and write more from herself. Begrudgingly taking this advice, Jo weaves the story of herself and her sisters and their experience growing up in Civil War America.

The show runs Friday, April 27th at 7:00 PM, Saturday, April 28th at 7:00 PM, and Sunday, April 29th at 2:00 PM. Ticket information coming soon.
