FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

Love God. Love Others.

“‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Throughout Jesus earthly ministry, He was often tested by the religious leaders because his message differed so greatly from what they were teaching. On this particular occasion, a teacher of Scripture asked Jesus the question – “Of all the commandments (of which the Jews had over 600 to try and keep), which is the most important?”

Jesus responds not by selecting a law that had to be followed, but a way of living that God calls us to emulate – love. Rather than being bogged down, we as Christians should model what it means to love. This doesn’t mean we adopt a carefree attitude toward the obvious sins which are in our culture and individual lives, but rather we adopt a mentality that we will love both in words and in actions. This is a simple concept, but often difficult for us to live out – for we are sinful people who continually “fall short of the glory of God.” We can’t live up to the model that Jesus set. We can’t love the way that God does – and He knows that.

Nevertheless, He calls us to recognize the love that He has for us. A perfect love, without conditions, that was revealed through the sacrifice of His son, Jesus Christ. A love that is for every person – saved or unsaved. A love that is displayed even as each of us falls short. As we experience the love of God the Father, we recognize that we are called to demonstrate that love to those around us – those we like and those we don’t. “We love because He first loved us” (1 John 4:19).

As we go throughout this academic year at Milwaukee Lutheran, we have the chance to experience relationships of love. First and foremost, I hope that each student would be made aware of God’s love in their individual life. I pray each of us recognizes the lengths that God goes to in pursuit of each of us. I pray that each of us continually focuses on loving our neighbors as ourselves. In times of peace and friendship this is easy, but it also must be prevalent in those times when we experience disagreement or conflict. Those are the times that test our love. The Milwaukee Lutheran community provides the perfect grounds for us to live in and live out love.

Away We Go

School is in session, we're starting off strong,
The classrooms are bustling with an energetic throng;
We survived orientation and bar-coded ID's
So, all that remains is to learn our ABC's.
That might mean some Algebra, Geometry, even Trig.,
Or making a cardboard boat, Oh so big.
Perhaps some drawing, sculpture, or computer graphics;
Or tumbling and jumping; your goal the next Olympics!
Bio., Geo., Chem., and Earth Science
Power tools, fasteners, fixing an appliance;
All these are studied along with O.T. and N. T.,
Will the football team win? Just wait and see.
Play a horn, sing a song, celebrate Anzac Day,
Econ., Psych., attend Chapel and pray;
English, Drama, Writing, even Espanol
Are just some or the courses that make us roll.
"Away We Go" it's time to begin
Take notes, do your homework and turn it in;
Study for tests, get to classes on time
And you will succeed, your grades will be fine.
Love God, Love your neighbor, let His light glow,
Fasten your seatbelt 'cause "AWAY WE GO!"
