FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

Love God with all your HEART by ... loving what God loves

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. 1 John 4:7

Adam
Kirsch

God is love. Everything done by God for us is in love. We are charged with emulating that love in our lives. But what does God love?

First and foremost, God loves people. God loves us. God loves the best versions of us. God loves the broken sinful versions of us. We are the shining jewel of His creation – the capstone that completed His masterpiece. When humans were created “it was very good” (Genesis 1:31). Even when humans sinned and broke the relationship with Him – He was filled with love. It was a love so great that throughout time, He continually blessed the people and accepted them back after they fell away.

However, the broken relationship cycle itself needed to be broken. The only way this could be accomplished is by a sacrifice to remove that which separates us – sin. Only one could fulfill this ultimate sacrifice – Jesus Christ, the only Son of the Heavenly Father. In His death, Jesus shows us the depth of His love and the lengths He will take to rescue us. Through that sacrifice and rescue from our sin, we are given the amazing gifts of life, eternal promise, and hope. Our response is to love what God loves – His Son Jesus Christ, the sacrifice made for us, and those around us. When we are given the greatest of all gifts, we are able to love what God loves.

Dress Code Clarification

White T-shirts are not allowed. Jackets, of any kind, are not allowed. Clothing with holes, shreds, or any fraying are not allowed. Undergarments should not be visible on anyone. See handbook, page 125, for a complete reading of the existing dress code.

These rules apply to young men and young women.

I'm Smooth B and I've got somethin' to say
The dress code and Saggin' pants are my theme for today;
Nobody here wants to see your colorful backside
That's one thing you really ought to try and hide.
"Undergarments must always be covered" states 12.2-B,
There are just some things our eyes should never see.
I've seen cracks, and patterns, and every color of the spectrum
But come on fellas, my poor old eyes, please respect 'em.
Pull your pants above your buns, for sure wear a belt,
I'll feel much better knowing my eyes won't melt.
No white t's is also our rule, so don't push your luck,
don't take me for a fool.

Jackets are taboo and shredded anything ain't even cool (except maybe cheese).

Now if this little ditty didn't get your attention,

How about this? Can you spell su- spen-sion?

Those are the rules, so don't you dare go home and pout,

Dress appropriately; Pull up your pants! It's Smoothe B. signing out.
