

Simply Theatre Academy – Performing Arts Teachers Wanted in Switzerland

Simply Theatre is Switzerland's resident and professional English Speaking Theatre Company and Performing Arts School for children and young people. The company operates a production company, producing professional English theatre for children and families in Switzerland, and a drama academy, providing quality drama and performing arts training for ages four years right through to adult.

Due to continued business growth, we have openings for drama and singing teaching staff in both Geneva and Zurich. We are currently looking to recruit either recent graduates or more experienced practitioners, to be energetic and passionate teachers. The positions are available starting from September 2019.

These are truly amazing opportunities for the right candidates to work in two truly beautiful locations within a highly sought after and highly acclaimed theatre Academy.

Available Opportunities.

Drama Teacher/Director
Singing Teacher/Musical Director

Job Specification

The Academy Teacher will:

- Take responsibility for the teaching of their allocated classes each week.
- Teach other workshops as required including school and summer workshops.
- Coach Group and Private sessions for LAMDA Examinations, as well as students preparing for college auditions.
- Make notes on lesson plans, including individual student comments and file these weekly.
- Hold parent/student/teacher meetings once per year.
- Manage and deliver Open classes at the end of Term 1 (December).
- Produce and Direct Showcase performances for all classes at the end of the year (June).
- Take on roles within production teams for Academy productions where necessary.
- Play an increasing role in the managing of a variety of company affairs, such as event management, administration, LAMDA exams, Customer Service, sales & marketing.

The job is full time.

Person Specification

Candidates will already have and be able to demonstrate/ provide evidence of:

- Teaching experience, providing coaching within schools or performing arts schools, over a minimum of a two year period.

- Experience in direction and production of a variety of youth performances for varying ages, or recent employment in theatre productions.

Candidates should:

- Be outstanding in their field and strive for excellence.
- Be able to provide strong references about the quality of their teaching and/or directing.
- Be youthful and enthusiastic in nature, passionate about children, teaching, and the theatre.
- Have as many of the following traits as possible - be outgoing, open, flexible, enthusiastic, independent, sociable and love to work as part of energetic teams.
- Relish the opportunity of living and working in Geneva or Zurich, Switzerland.

Salary & Benefits

This is a fantastic opportunity to work full time in a role you are passionate about. Salaries are highly rewarding and will be disclosed on interview.

For further details, or to apply, please send a copy of your full working CV to date along with a headshot or recent photograph, and a short letter as to why this may be of interest to you via the following web address: blog.simplytheatre.com/job-application

Closing dates for application – Whilst we will still consider you for future positions within the company, we request that for the above positions, candidates submit their application by the 29th March 2019.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.