DAVID & CATHERINE MULLINS ROBBINS (PASTORS & FACULTY)

David's primary focus is pastoring the local church and teaching the different parts of the Body of Christ to function together. David desires to see the church equipped in the technical and spiritual aspects of ministry. As the Apostle Paul was both a tentmaker and minister, David believes this generation will excel in marketplace ministry and desires to help them do so. Since 2015, David and his wife, Catherine, have traveled North America leading worship, teaching, ministering prophetically, and equipping churches to fulfill their call to worship in Spirit and Truth. While home, David works a day job as a computer engineer and pastors at Coweta Community Church in Newnan, Georgia.

As a nationally known speaker and worship artist, Catherine Mullins Robbins lives to see lives transformed as they encounter Jesus Christ. Georgia born and raised, Catherine's heart for the Church and worship began at an early age where she served alongside her parents in ministry. Since 2008, Catherine has been traveling extensively while ministering through teaching and preaching, leading worship and training worship leaders. Her prayer is that all would come into a deeper revelation of Jesus as Lord of their lives and embrace their unique calling from God. Catherine also pastors with her husband, David, and helps lead worship at Coweta Community Church.
