

Unum LifeWorks Employee Assistance Programme

Supporting Materials

As part of your Group Income Protection policy, you and your employees get access to Unum LifeWorks at no additional cost.

The service provides employers with access to legal help, including the ability to create legally binding documents as well as offering support and guidance for line managers.

Employees get practical and emotional support via a 24 hour confidential helpline and an online resource. Further information on all of the services available from LifeWorks can be found in the following materials:
