

JACOB ROSE

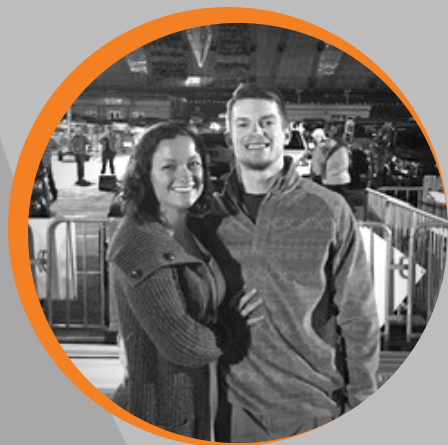

MAU FAMILY VALUES WINNER

Jacob is an exceptional MAU employee who has gone above and beyond to epitomize the MAU Core Value: Teamwork. Here at MAU, we work together as a results oriented team. Jacob does this every day in his work with MAU in Beech Island, SC and he has a recent promotion to show for it.

TEAMWORK

“Jacob's ownership of his role and of Copack Quality, with training and training development has put the Copack Team from floor level associates to QA's and Supervisors, in a position to make more accurate determinations of the quality of incoming materials and outgoing finished product. His efforts to create standards and training materials has raised the awareness of the team, who now understand the importance of the quality of the product they are delivering. His statement is "Safety protects people and Quality protects jobs."”
