

LOGAN REAVES

MAU FAMILY VALUES WINNER

Logan is an exceptional MAU employee who has gone above and beyond to epitomize the MAU Core Value: Safety. Here at MAU, we live safety. Logan does this every day in his work as a Material Handling Lead Operator with MAU in Ogden, UT.

SAFETY

Logan has put Safety first from the time he started his journey with us. There have been numerous times when Logan has volunteered to train and demonstrated proper battery changes with new operators and ensured they followed Safety precautions and were positioned in designated areas out of harm's way. Logan has always demonstrated close communications and developed productive relationships with our customer in assisting them with resolving real time issues in the warehouse. He is always eager to listen and respond with confidence to the customer's requests. Logan has been observed on numerous occasions by several of our leaders and each time he has consistently demonstrated integrity, a work ethic and attention to details. He has always shown respect to leadership, our customer leaders and also those he has trained. Logan is constantly giving feedback in the classroom to his peers and on the warehouse floor. Logan is a born leader, his take the front seat ability is an asset, he is always eager to participate and share his knowledge with the team. He is out front and willing to participate in our continuous improvement activities. With the new logistical growth platform that MAU Ogden has started, Logan has been a valuable asset and has volunteered in many of the activities to grow the business. Logan is truly a devoted team-player. He has always made himself available for the team.

GET TO KNOW LOGAN

What is your hidden talent?

Snowboarding

Who was your role model when you were a child?

My father, to this day! [My father has] been in law enforcement for over 20 years and that is not easy in today's society.

