Temporary Staffing

Industrial Staffing Solutions Achieve Greater Efficiencies

While we serve a variety of staffing needs across a range of industries, our team has extensive industrial manufacturing expertise. Our customized staffing solutions are shown to yield increases in retention and productivity, and decreases in turnover, absenteeism, time-to-fill and overtime costs.

We place experienced individuals in production, assembly, quality assurance, logistics, packing and warehouse positions. We'll work with you to develop a unique, adaptable staffing solution that can change as your business needs and fulfillment requirements fluctuate.

Yes, we vet candidates and help companies fill open positions.

But more than that, we identify the skills you need most; we redesign your workforce to be more efficient and effective; and we enhance the hiring process, delivering recruiting solutions that get the job done today with an eye toward what's needed tomorrow.

Simplify Office Administration with Experienced Professionals

Our existing pool of talent, combined with the collective strength of our partners, helps ensure that we'll provide your business with only the best, most qualified applicants for your clerical and front-end positions.

Enjoy Time & Cost Savings

With Candidate Screening

In addition to connecting you with highly qualified individuals for your temporary, contract or direct-hire positions, we'll handle the logistics that come along with new hires.

We apply our "Consider It Done" mentality in all of our processes, which is especially relevant when it comes to the new hire process. Our skilled recruiting and assessments teams take care of candidate screening, saving you valuable time and resources. We'll handle everything from interviews, skills testing and personality profiles to background, reference and drug checks.

We offer evaluation tools to properly assess candidates, taking the guesswork out of the hiring process. Our assessments include: foreign languages, software proficiency, AUTO CAD, accounting and bookkeeping, legal and paralegal matter, medical assisting and collections, and human resources basics and payroll.

Capitalize On

Our Management Services

To reduce costs and maximize productivity, we take charge of not only the design and implementation of your staffing solutions, but also the management of these services, leaving you the time and money to focus on core, mission-critical business functions.

With MAU, consider it done. We deliver on our promises, and exceed expectations. Trust MAU to design a staffing plan that works for your business, find and hire the most qualified individuals, and handle important administrative duties throughout your projects' lifecycle.

"When MAU acquired responsibility for our industrial temporary workforce, the resources were properly planned and prepared, which was ultimately validated in their cost, quality, and service to our end customers."
