

STOP GAME REQUESTS ON YOUR KINDLE

There are very few things as annoying than your mobile phone or tablet device buzzing to tell you that a friend wants you to play “Candy Crush” or “Farmville,” or whatever the latest game craze is on Facebook. Here’s how to stop those bothersome notifications.

1. From your Kindle device, open Facebook.

2. Tap on the Menu button.

3. Tap on App Settings.

4. Tap on Notifications.

5. Uncheck the Application Requests option.
