

Commercial Radio Remains a Dominant Media with New Zealand Audiences.

- Taranaki - Survey 1 2019

CEO of the Radio Broadcasters Association Jana Rangooni is unsurprised that radio listening across New Zealand remains high with over 3.6m New Zealanders listening to radio every week.

She goes on to add “Commercial Radio continues to hold its place as a powerful channel for advertisers with over 3.3 million people listening to commercial radio stations. Radio continues to provide advertisers with the ability to reach not only large audiences, but also audiences that are targeted and highly engaged with the stations they listen to. Whether it’s for the music, news and information or the entertaining personalities, people have a strong and loyal connection to the stations they listen to.”

Please note: The S1 2019 release does not include an S1 release for the Waikato region. The weather effect that took down the Ruru transmission tower continues to impact coverage in the area and as a result no surveys will occur in Waikato until late 2019. All historic S3 2017 data for Waikato will be carried forward for S1, S2 and S3 2019 for both Total NZ and Waikato markets. The industry requests that all users ensure all data used for these markets is clearly identified within the source
