Survey 2 - 2019

Auckland, July 4th – Results of the Total New Zealand 2019 RNZ Measurement Survey 2 conducted by GfK were released today at 1pm.

Conducted across the whole of New Zealand, this unified New Zealand radio audience measurement survey gives valuable insights into the strength and scope of radio listening across the country. The survey was conducted over 40 weeks and sampled 15,117 people aged 10+.

Department of Statistics estimated population data at 30 June 2018 indicates approximately 4,347,100 people aged 10+ years live in New Zealand. The Total New Zealand Radio New Zealand Audience Measurement Survey shows 3,634,600¹ or 83.6% of them listen to a radio station each week.

Network RNZ National reaches 626,900¹ different people each week, a 14.4% reach of all people 10+ across New Zealand.

This is a share of 11.7%² of the total weekly radio listening in New Zealand.

Network RNZ Concert has a total audience weekly reach of 172,600¹ or 4% of all people in New Zealand aged 10+.

This is a share of 2.2%² of the total weekly radio listening in New Zealand.

2,905,400 people aged 10+ listen to Breakfast radio (6am to 9am Monday to Friday) in a typical week.

Breakfast results (Mon-Fri 6am-9am) show Network RNZ National reaches 459,500 or 10.6% of people aged 10+ across New Zealand. This is a market share of 15.1%² of the total radio listening audience at that time of day.

Please note: The S2 2019 release does not include an S2 release for the Waikato region. The weather effect that took down the Ruru transmission tower continues to impact coverage in the area and as a result no surveys will occur in Waikato until late 2019. All historic S3 2017 data for Waikato will be carried forward for S1, S2 and S3 2019 for both Total NZ and Waikato markets. The industry requests that all users ensure all data used for these markets is clearly identified within the source.
