

Cormac Doddy

Based in Los Angeles, Cormac Doddy has worked in the real estate capital markets for ten years with experience in Europe, China and the US. Cormac began his career with Forterra Trust, a Singapore listed real estate fund, where he held various roles in commercial investment and development across China. Cormac joined Cushman & Wakefield (formerly DTZ) in Shanghai where he was Head of Greater China's divestment services and advised on investment transactions totaling over $2 billion. In recent years, Cormac co-founded two businesses in the fast growing FinTech industry, including China's first equity crowdfunding platform for overseas investments. He is co-founder and a director of Know Your Customer Ltd. a business he formed with 2 partners having faced the enormous challenge of identifying large numbers of private investors originating from China.

Cormac holds a master's degree in international real estate markets from the University of Aberdeen and a bachelor's degree in economics and politics from University College Dublin. He is a qualified member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors since 2010 and is a member of the Urban Land Institutes Young Leader's Group. In September 2013 Cormac was listed in the Sunday Independent newspaper top 50 Irish business men and women working in the BRIC countries.
