

Randal Dawson

Randal Dawson, MAI, FRICS, CRE leads the North Central Region of CBRE Incorporated's Litigation Support Practice for the Valuation and Advisory Group based in Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Dawson has over 25 years of commercial real estate valuation and consulting experience, having completed a wide range of assignments throughout the United States. The types of properties appraised include office buildings, shopping centers, low income housing tax credit (LIHTC) properties, industrial buildings, apartment and condominium developments, proposed income producing properties, vacant land, condemnation valuations, condominium conversions, and various special purpose properties. Consultation experience includes market studies, feasibility studies, adaptive reuses of real estate, certification of construction cost budgets, litigation support and expert witness court testimony.