

ThinkCERCA Curriculum Integration - CERCA Set Planning Graphic Organizer

Example: Integrating ThinkCERCA in ELA

Teaching	How to Use ThinkCERCA	Lessons	Grading/Feedback
Hatchet	Incorporate the concepts within Hatchet and ThinkCERCA Lessons to enhance discussion and conclusions drawn around the essential questions	Human & Animal Interactions: What positive and negative effects do human activities have on endangered animals? Students will complete a Socratic Discussion Evidence: reinforce the process of including evidence	Applied Lesson: targeted feedback on evidence because students are struggling with that skill Socratic Discussion: Discussion rubric

Teaching	How to Use ThinkCERCA	Lessons	Grading/Feedback

ThinkCERCA Curriculum Integration Planning Document

1. What will you be teaching?	2. How do you see ThinkCERCA supporting your content or class?
3. What lesson type will you be most utilizing this year?	4. What specific lessons will you be using?
5. What CCSS is most prominently featured in your lesson(s)?	6. What will grading and feedback look like?
7. How will you explain the connection of using ThinkCERCA?	8. When will you reflect and assess the success of your ThinkCERCA?