

Collaborating to Find Evidence

Now that you have read your assigned Writing Lesson text, consider the Writing Lesson question. When you are ready, determine your claim and search for one piece of evidence to support your thinking.

My Claim

My Reason

My Evidence

Pair and share your thinking with your partner. Be prepared to ask your partner: how does your evidence support your claim?

Our Shared Claim

Shared Reason(s)

Shared Evidence

Square up with another pair and share your claims, reason, and evidence. After considering all claims and evidence. Come to a consensus on a claim, reason, and evidence for your argument. Collaborate to consolidate duplicates and refine your reasoning.
