

Dear Student,

We have received your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). As a result of your FAFSA, the federal government is requiring Hocking College to confirm some of the data entered on your FAFSA. Therefore, we are requesting additional information to verify your status. You and your parents must complete this packet and submit all requested information. Failure to receive all information will prevent our office from processing your financial aid.

If any item does not pertain to your situation, simply enter Not Applicable or N/A. Be sure to provide all appropriate signatures from you and your parents and include the date of your signatures.

Thank You!

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is selected for Verification. In order for our department to continue processing financial aid on your behalf, you must complete and submit all requested documentation. Once we receive your documents, we will compare that information with the data you entered on your FAFSA. If there is conflicting information, we will make corrections and resubmit to the federal processor. After all corrections are confirmed, we will provide you with a financial aid award package.
