

Equine Assisted Services

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Equine Assisted Services Degree Program

The Equine Assisted Services program has been designed to train and develop skills to work with persons with disabilities or challenges. This program focuses on producing graduates that are CHA certified Level 1 Instructors of Riders with Disabilities (IRD).

As the only college in the state of Ohio to offer an Associate of Applied Science in Equine Assisted Services, this program offers the unique opportunity for students to work with a variety of horses that will be available as service horses to either add to the college's herd or to offer to established Equine Assisted Service centers.

Graduates of this program can continue their studies in human-services-related fields, including occupational therapy, psychology and physical therapy.
