

Addiction Counseling

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Addiction Counseling Program

The Addiction Counseling Program prepares students to enter the field as Chemical Dependency Counselors who wish to work within the fields of chemical dependency, criminal justice, and corrections. Students can also enter the field as Chemical Dependency Counselors working in a wide variety of environments including outpatient, residential, inpatient, and community based settings.

This program is particularly suited to those students who primarily wish to enter the workforce upon completion of their associate degree. However, in addition to preparing students to enter the workforce, this program also prepares students to continue their education in the fields of counseling, education, and human services at four-year colleges.
