*Team Simulation—Small groups that are formed into teams. Each team is responsible for product management within its own fictitious insurance company. Team members decide how to price their product, what underwriting standards to apply, how much of the premium to dedicate to the distribution channel, and how to structure the company’s reinsurance program.
Meet the Wisconsin Team

The proposed faculty for the Business Strategy for Emerging Leaders program was selected to provide a solid framework for future success in strategically managing, developing and leading an organization. The faculty for any given session may vary, however, based on program needs and faculty availability.

Dan Kaiser
Senior Vice President, Product Innovation and Development
CUNA Mutual Group

Dan leads a new business division established to innovate and launch entirely new businesses and product designs. He has also been a frequent speaker at national events, an author of articles in both business and legal journals, a director on multiple boards, an active community volunteer, and “chief farmer” of a Wisconsin-based organic farming charitable organization. Dan earned three degrees with honors (JD, MS, and BBA) and holds several professional certifications.

Eric Hansing
Vice President, Multicultural and Corporate Strategy
CUNA Mutual Group

Eric leads corporate strategy development and is responsible for the annual business planning processes that ensure strategic initiatives align with long-term strategic and financial performance goals. He holds a bachelor’s degree in marketing from the University of Wisconsin–Whitewater and an executive master’s degree in business from the University of Wisconsin–Madison, and he is a certified Credit Union Development Educator.

P. Artell Smith
Vice President-Human Resources, Talent, HR Shared Services and Technology
Quad/Graphics, Inc.

Artell has extensive experience in human resources management, advising and focusing on overall people strategy, talent management/development, and compensation/benefits. He has led transformative projects across all aspects of human resources (HR) work globally, including talent development, generalist services, operations, technology, and global sourcing. Artell earned a Master of Public Administration degree from Brigham Young University (BYU) Graduate School of Management and a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science, also from BYU.
Jim Swanke Jr.
Director, Risk Consulting
Willis Towers Watson

Jim concentrates on financial and strategic planning issues, including risk financing design and evaluation, captive insurance company design, enterprise risk management, vendor selection/review, risk management organizational design, facultative reinsurance placements, and regulatory compliance. He holds a BBA degree in risk management and insurance, personnel management, and marketing and an MBA degree in finance and risk management from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Steve King
Retired Executive Vice President, HR
Aon Hewitt

Steve is the retired executive director of the Center for Professional and Executive Development at the Wisconsin School of Business. Steve has 35 years’ experience in teaching leaders how to optimize their own and their organizations performance. He holds an MA degree from the University of Wisconsin and a BA degree from the University of Iowa, both in economics.

Tyler Leverty, PhD
Associate Professor
Gerald D. Stephens CPCU Distinguished Chair in Risk Management and Insurance
Wisconsin School of Business

Ty is the Gerald D. Stephens CPCU Distinguished Chair in Risk Management and Insurance and an associate professor in the Department of Risk and Insurance at the Wisconsin School of Business. Before joining the faculty at UW-Madison, Leverty was an associate professor of finance and the TRISTAR Risk Management Research Fellow at the University of Iowa’s Tippie College of Business. His research interests are in the economics of insurance markets, insurance company operations, and public policy issues in insurance.

Joan Schmit, PhD, MBA, CPCU
Professor
American Family Insurance Distinguished Chair in Risk Management and Insurance
Wisconsin School of Business, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Joan is the American Family Insurance Distinguished Chair in Risk Management and Insurance in the Wisconsin School of Business at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She also serves as an affiliate faculty member in the Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies at the University of Wisconsin, as chair of the Risk and Insurance Department in the Wisconsin School of Business, and in the insurance program at the University of St. Gallen in Switzerland. Her areas of expertise include insurance regulation, enterprise risk management, reputation risk and microinsurance.
