INSURANCE: Are you insured by one of the following companies? You must circle your insurance company below
We require ALL of this information before we can claim treatment costs for you via your insurance. Unfortunately, due to the complexity of dealing with insurance companies, if you cannot supply all of this information we will require payment at the time of your appointment. If you supply this information following your initial appointment we will be able to commence claims directly with your insurance and reimburse you should we recover the cost from your insurer. Please note, if we ask you to pay for your appointment we will provide a receipt for the treatment, with the main therapist's name, and you will be able to claim the costs yourself directly from your insurance if you wish.	BUPA	CIGNA UK	AXA PPP	AVIVA	Simply Health

	How many sessions have you been pre-authorised?			Enter excess amount that you are paying today here
	* If you have an excess on your policy, you will be asked to pay that excess amount to us directly at your initial appointment. This will be held on your account and used to pay off the excess as it accumulates.
	For those patients on a cost share / co-insurance policy, we ask for a standard payment of £50 or £100 dependent on the level of share you must pay towards your treatment.
Any overpayments made to Synergy will be refunded to you once all invoices have been processed and fully paid by your insurance company. We will suspend treatment in any case where monies are owed to Synergy and remain outstanding.

INSURANCE: Are you insured by a company not listed above?
You must pay for your treatment at every session and we will be able to provide a receipt for the treatment, with the main therapist's name, and you will be able to claim the costs yourself directly from your insurance. We are authorised to provide treatment for the majority of insurers but we don't accept payment from the insurance company. It is still very important for you to let us know if you have a limit on the number of physio sessions you are covered for because you may not be reimbursed by your insurance if you exceed these. You are responsible for knowing how many sessions you are authorised to attend.
I acknowledge that in any circumstance where the insurance company fails to pay, I shall make payment to	How many sessions have you been pre-authorised?

Reminder service

We operate a courtesy reminder service using text and/or email. If you have ticked above that you do not wish this data to be used for marketing purposes, this will not affect your reminders. You may request that we remove this data from your record at any time.

Please do not rely on this service as it is your responsibility to attend your appointment. We hold no responsibility for any failure in you receiving our reminders and you will be charged according to our cancellation policy if you do not attend and we can show that the reminder was sent from our system.

Cancellation

We operate a 24 hour cancellation policy. If you give us less than 24 hours' notice, we reserve the right to charge 50% of the full session fee and you agree to pay that.

For failure to attend an appointment we reserve the right to charge the full appointment cost and you agree to pay this.

Under 16s & Parental Consent

For an initial assessment, consent can only be given by someone with "Parental Responsibility" for the child, as given below (please tick which applies to you):

Biological mother

For children born before these dates, the biological father and was married at the time of the child's birth

Biological father and named on the birth certificate for children born after December 1 2003 (England and Wales), April 15 2002 (NI) or May 4 2006 (Scotland)

You have been given the status of Responsible Parent by Court Order

Name of person with 'Parental Consent' _____

Date _____

Thereafter we require an adult to accompany an under 16 year old patient on every treatment session. However, the above named parent may allow a named adult to accompany a child to a treatment session in their place, but only by providing one of the following:

- an email to info@synergyphysio.co.uk giving the name of the accompanying adult and the date of the treatment they will attend, or
 - a letter that the accompanying adult will bring to the treatment session which has been signed and dated by the 'Responsible Parent'. These will be put in the patient notes.

Treatment

Your therapist will outline clearly before commencing treatment what methods they will use and how they intend to treat you. You authorise the therapist to use these methods, but if you do not want a particular type of treatment please inform the therapist immediately.

Any exercises given to you will be clearly explained. Any exercise undertaken at home is at your own risk. If you feel any discomfort during exercise, stop immediately and consult your therapist. Synergy Physiotherapy will not be liable for any injuries that occur outside of our premises whilst you are performing exercises given to you by your therapist.

Professional Footballer Professional Indemnity

If either of the following applies to you, please make Synergy aware BEFORE any treatment can commence as we may be required to acquire additional insurance for the duration of your treatment:

- Are you a professional Footballer currently part of a National Team or Squad?
 - Are you employed by a Football club in the top two divisions of any Professional Football League?
