Acquiring Spectrum to cement the position as a leading provider of multi-client seismic data

Forward-Looking Statements

All statements in this presentation other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements, which are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties, and assumptions that are difficult to predict and are based upon assumptions as to future events that may not prove accurate. These factors include TGS' reliance on a cyclical industry and principal customers, TGS' ability to continue to expand markets for licensing of data, and TGS' ability to acquire and process data products at costs commensurate with profitability. Actual results may differ materially from those expected or projected in the forward-looking statements. TGS undertakes no responsibility or obligation to update or alter forward-looking statements for any reason.

Acquiring Spectrum to cement the position as a leading provider of multi-client seismic data

- Board of Directors of TGS and Spectrum have agreed to principle terms of an acquisition of Spectrum by TGS
- Transaction to be structured as a statutory merger between the companies
- TGS will be the surviving entity

Delivering on the strategy

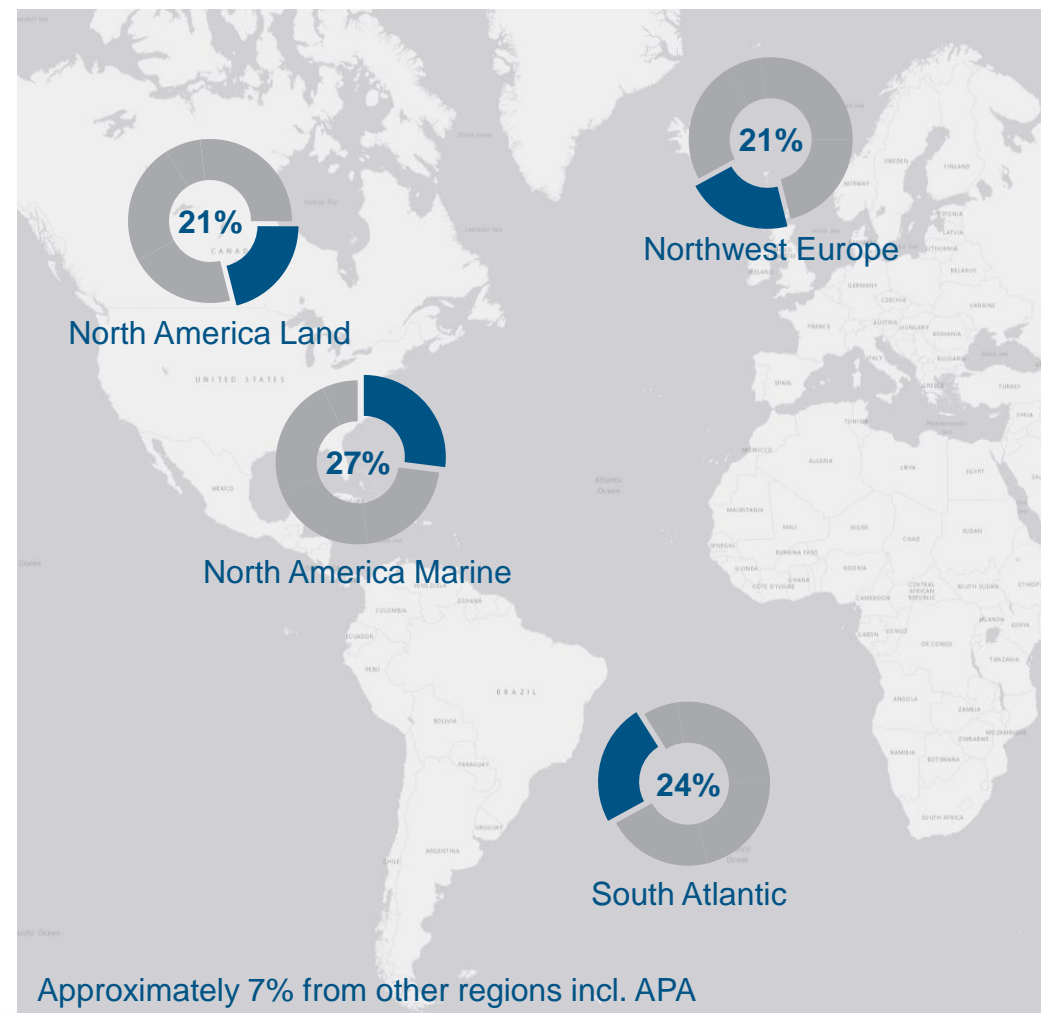

Spectrum transaction fits well with strategic plan presented in CMD on 7 February 2019

Transaction establishes fourth main revenue generating hub

- Transaction fits with strategic ambition of growing exposure towards South Atlantic
- South Atlantic will be another main revenue generating hub for TGS
 - Alongside North America Land, North America Marine and Northwest Europe
- 20-25% of investments to be allocated to each of these hubs in the long run

Distribution of pro-forma 2018 Net Revenues

Northwest Europe includes TGS EUR and SPU Northwest Europe units

North America Land includes TGS Land and GPS

North America Marine includes TGS NA and SPU NA

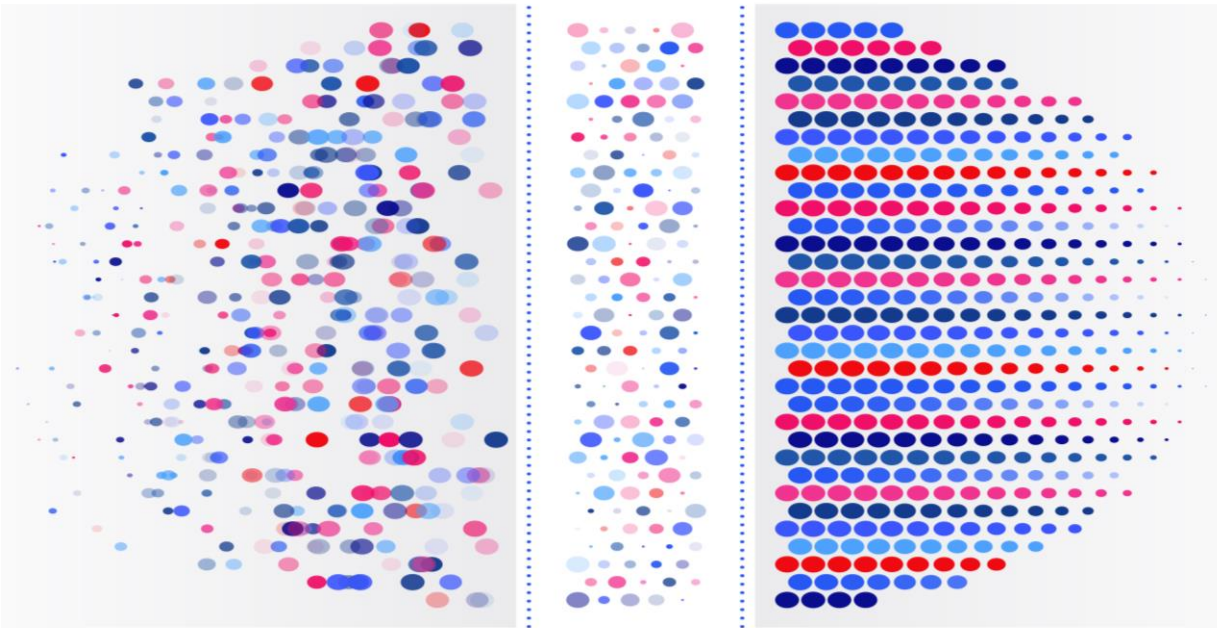

South Atlantic includes TGS Latin America and AME and SPU South America and AME

Transaction accelerates ongoing Data & Analytics initiatives

SOLUTION

- Progression within machine learning and artificial intelligence (AI) has made data the world's most valuable resource

“One of the things we see at Google Cloud is that it’s not the Company with the best algorithm that’s going to win – it’s the Company with the most data”

Darryl Willis, Google Cloud, VP oil, gas, and energy sector

“And just to give you a sense of the scale: What we can now do in 1 day used to take 7 years to do. That’s the processing of all this information ”

Doug Suttles, Encana, President and CEO

- Business success defined by ability to collect, refine and use data
- Exponential growth in data volumes

Substantial synergies and scale

Cost synergies

- Preliminary estimates of annual cash cost synergies of approximately USD 20 million (Opex and Capex)
- Processing software and hardware consolidation
- Consolidation of offices in key hubs
- Overlapping functions mainly in imaging and admin/support staff

Scale advantages

- Strengthening of rapidly growing South Atlantic hub to create an ideal geographical portfolio
- True exploration partner for global E&P's with comprehensive database in all key markets
- World's largest 2D library
- Broader exposure to a more diversified client base in all regions
- Scale to capitalize on data & analytics trends

Robust balance sheet provides platform for further growth

- TGS' solid balance sheet will be an enabler for the next steps in developing Spectrum's frontier portfolio
- The strong cash flow and robust balance sheet allows for continued investment growth, as well as increased shareholder distribution in the longer run

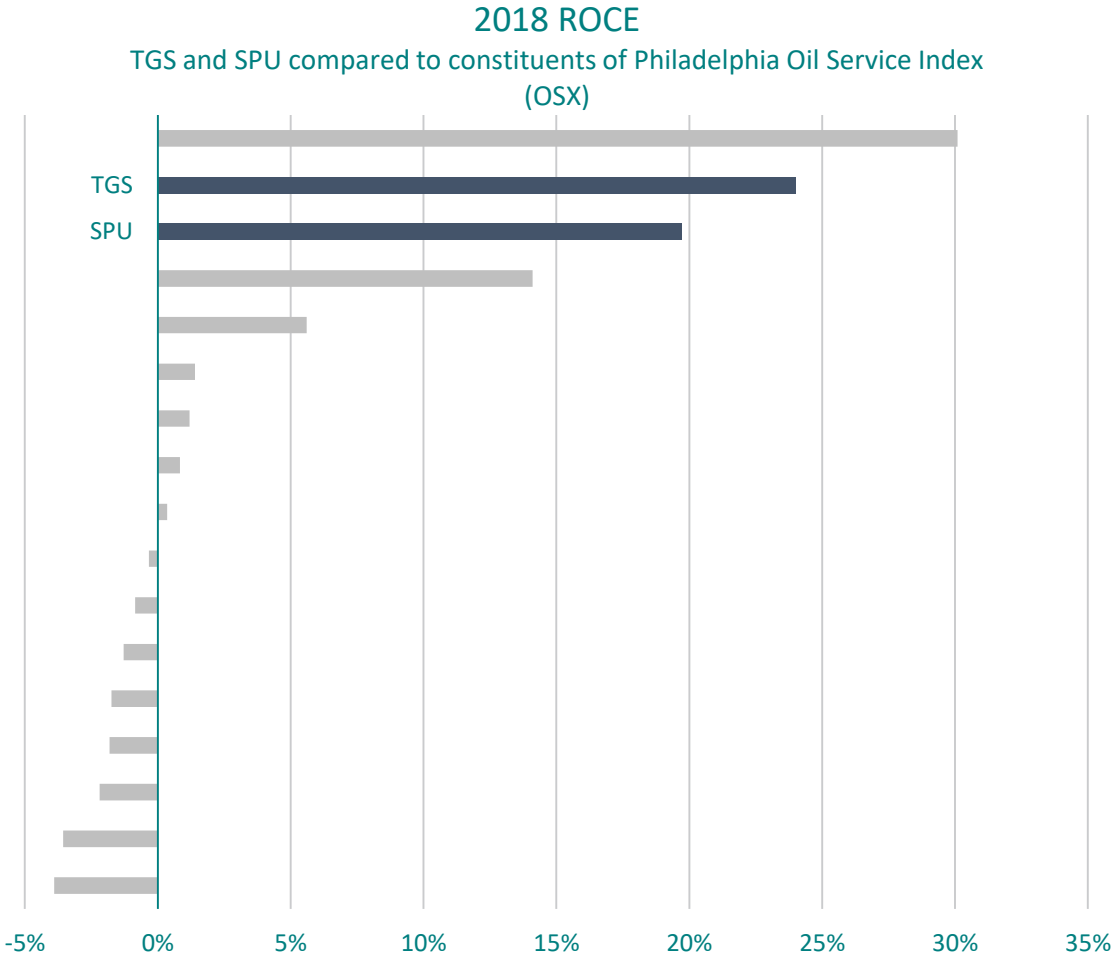

1. Cash less interest bearing debt

Combination supports continued financial outperformance

- Combination of two profitable entities combined with significant synergies, will enable continued industry leading shareholder returns
- Strong cash position and track record of industry leading returns
- TGS remains committed to maintain existing dividend policy

Market outlook improving

Recent Brent Oil Price Development

- Positive YTD momentum in oil price
- Current price significantly above planning price
- Exploration spending expected to increase as deepwater activity picks up
- Reserve replacement ratios continue to be low causing reserves to decline
