

Megatrends and the Factory of the Future

Are you ready for the global megatrends that will reshape manufacturing?

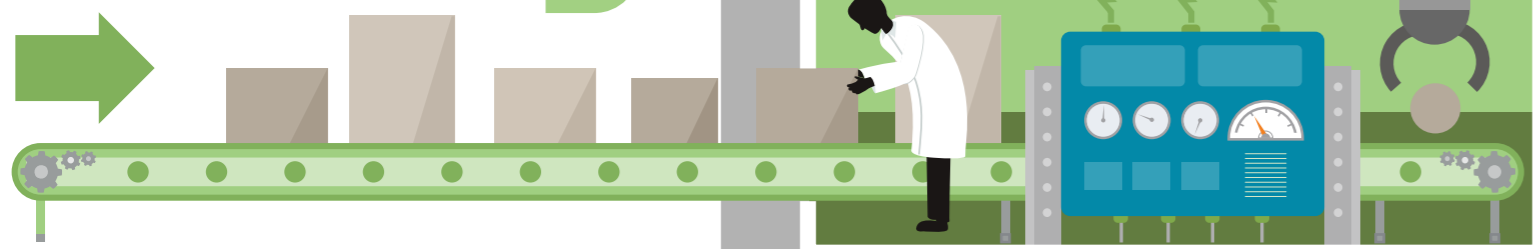

Four Megatrends That Matter

1 Demographic shifts

Patterns of population growth and urbanisation will affect where and how you find customers and employees

2 Resource scarcity

Growing demand for energy and materials will affect the stability of your supply chains

Get ready for their impact

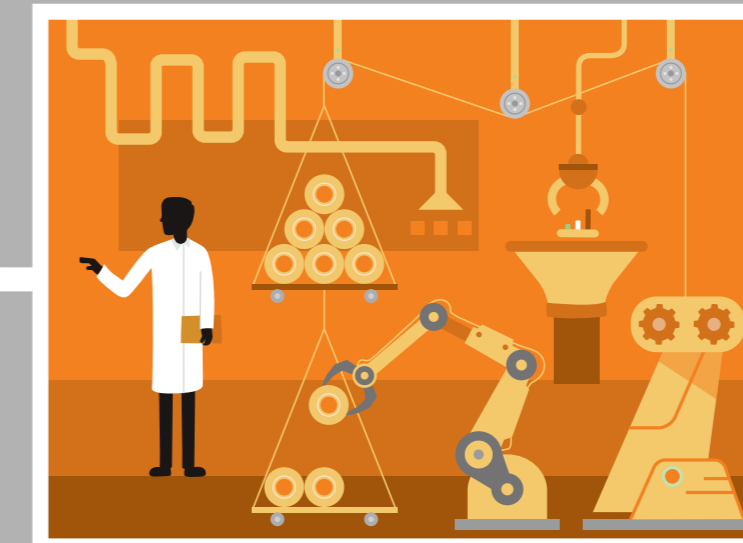

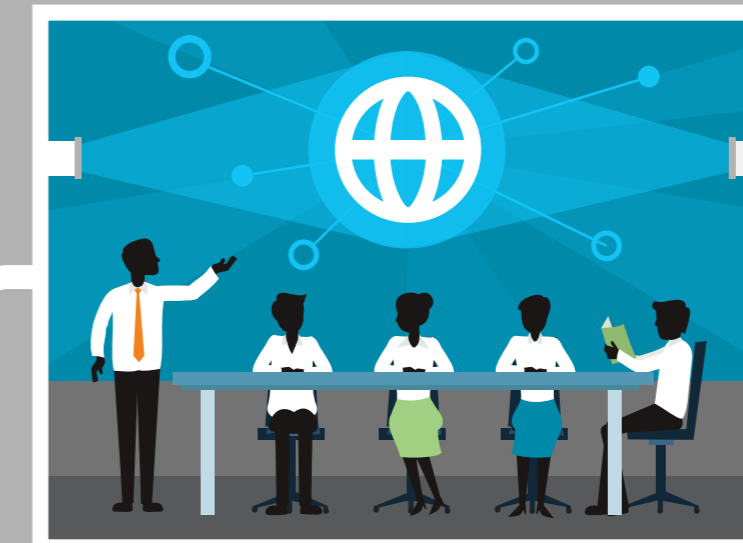

If you want to be future-fit, the time to embrace change is now. Understanding and implementing new technologies is a big part of that—and Epicor can help.

3 Globalisation

Emerging, rapidly growing economies will bring new competition for your business

4 Knowledge and gender gap

Unresolved societal issues will affect how easily you can find the right employees
