

Leading teams remotely

VIRTUAL WORKSHOP

In the current chaotic and dispersed working environment leaders need to re-establish the ways teams work. Do this well and the team will pull together and perform superbly – ignore it and they will lose their way, fall apart and underperform.

When all is chaos it is leadership that makes the difference

This workshop is for team leaders and executives who are required to lead dispersed teams while team members are facing their own tough circumstances and are worried, anxious and overloaded.

TIPS & TOOLS

- Understand what teams most need from their leaders in chaotic times
- Recognise how teams derail and learn how to pull the team back together
- Apply a simple model to focus their own leadership efforts
- Develop a plan for leading the team
- Learn a straightforward technique for checking team health and wellbeing

Winsborough's psychologists have worked internationally with leaders and teams in war-zones, during natural disasters, business mergers, disestablishments and startups. We have coached hundreds of teams and written the book on team psychology. Learn from deeply experienced professionals how to lift team performance.

Building productive team performance

If you're interested in investing in Winsborough's Leading Teams remotely virtual workshop (one-hour) for you or your people please contact your Winsborough Account Manager, call 0800 222 061 or email support@winsborough.co.nz to REGISTER NOW.