

Team Performance

2: Setting the Mission

VIRTUAL WORKSHOP

A team only exists to get something done that cannot be done by one person alone. A team's mission provides its rais d'être. In turmoil a clear mission rallies people and creates shared purpose.

This workshop helps leaders focus the team's efforts. It will motivate team members and clarify what success looks like.

Leaders will learn how to create clarity about what needs to be accomplished and how to set clear expectations for team member deliverables.

- Create clarity
- Re-prioritise and refocus
- Ensure shared understanding
- Build motivation

Winsborough's psychologists have worked internationally with leaders and teams in war-zones, during natural disasters, business mergers, disestablishments and startups. We have coached hundreds of teams and wrote the book on team psychology. Learn from deeply experienced professionals how to lift team performance.

If you'd like to learn more you can register for Winsborough's Team Performance 2: Setting the Mission virtual workshop (one-hour) which provides practical tips and tools to build the team's purpose.
