

RATING 16

- GOOD REMINDER OF BUFFERS
- MEAN + STDEV VS PERCENTILES
- GOOD PRACTICE OF USING KANBAN ABOVE TEAM LEVEL

I rate this meetup: 8

What I liked:

- getting us to do some work, really think about stuff
- different from meetings where participants mainly just listen
- useful insights to go away ~~to~~ with a new area of knowledge to research

To make it perfect:

- umm ... don't know really, sorry

Rate the Meetup as - 7

I liked the fact of ageing work items as risk.

To make it perfect

- start & end time of meetup
- less comprehensive documents to start with
- well planned event

I RATE AS 8

Liked the exercise

To make perfect start on time ;)

What I liked: Practical exercise in groups
- breaks the ice with strangers
- made me think!

: I learned something new - Larry Maccherone

It reinforced some ideas I was thinking about re metrics for predictability.

Relaxed + easy to ask questions

(8)

I rate this meetup as 7

What I liked about it is...

→ use case

→ explanations

→ collaboration between participants

To make it perfect

→ a little bit more organisation at the beginning (like room availability)

→ more time for exercise

Feedback. = 8.

What I like about it — was ~~is~~ that it was interactive, it made us think about what we were trying to do. Very useful & productive.

To make it perfect — To have an intro initially, like an example. To have the room earlier, but otherwise it was fine.

TO MAKE IT PERFECT

~~WANT~~ ASCERTAIN PEOPLES

EXPERIENCE BETTER TO DETERMINE

IF SOME PEOPLE NEED MORE OR LESS INSTRUCTION

I rate this meeting as ... 7

What I liked about it is ... Interactive, hands-on, "learning by doing".

To make it perfect ...
structure the Exercise (instructions)
into clearer paragraphs.
