

REAL. SIMPLE. RESULTS.

Entrepreneur, speaker, and Professional EOS Implementer Marisa Smith delivers engaging and actionable content that's tailor-made for busy leaders. Her events energize entrepreneurs who are driven to improve their businesses and the quality of their lives. Participants in Marisa's dynamic keynotes and hands-on workshops will:

- Understand the six keys to building a truly great organization
- Roll up their sleeves and confront organizational issues head-on
- Learn how to get everyone focused on achieving a clear company vision
- Begin to instill discipline and accountability throughout the organization

Marisa introduces a complete set of simple concepts and practical tools being used by thousands of entrepreneurial leadership teams to clarify, simplify and achieve their vision – the Entrepreneurial Operating System (EOS)®.

About Marisa Smith

Sharing her knowledge and passion for EOS and how it can truly transform an organization is what gets entrepreneurs excited about being in the same room with Marisa Smith. Her engaging keynotes and workshops help struggling entrepreneurs focus on confronting and combating the things that keep them down, hold them back and tick them off. Today as a Professional EOS Implementer and Marketing Lead at EOS Worldwide, Marisa spends her time helping leaders learn how to run their businesses, build healthy teams, drive growth, and live a balanced life.
