

DOUBLEDUTCH FOR INTERNAL MEETINGS

Elevate internal meetings with a live engagement app

From sales kickoff meetings to leadership forums, deliver essential content while rallying your employees towards one goal.

Keep All Your Events In One Place

- Sales Kickoffs & Trainings
- Leadership Meetings
- Corporate Meetings
- Incentive Programs
- Employee On-Boarding
- Corporate Days & Holiday Parties

Relay Information Easily

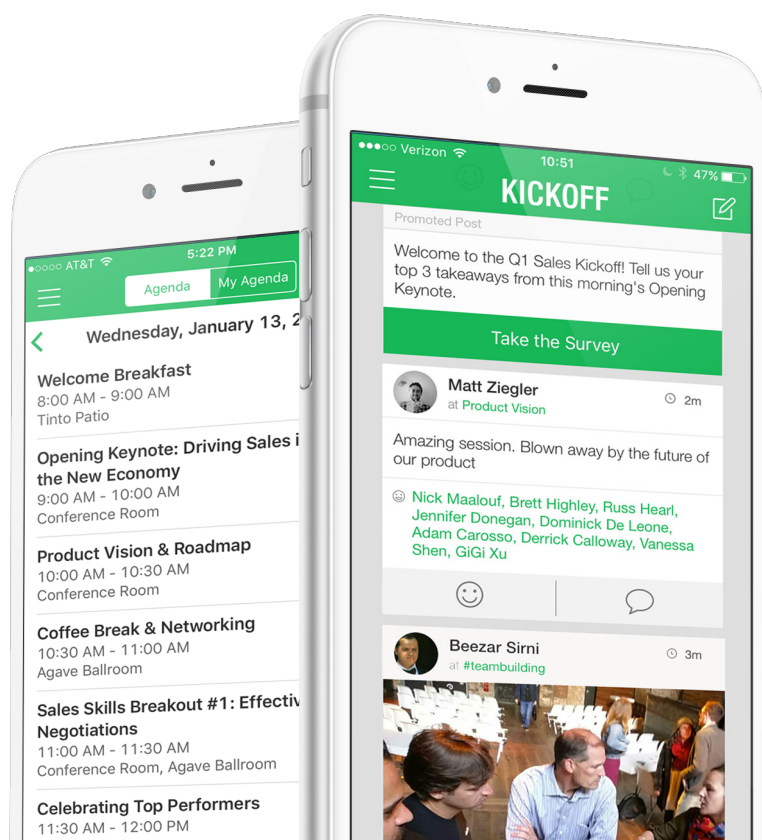

Keep employees in the know by sharing all agenda and event details in one, secure place. Deliver important announcements instantly through promoted posts and push notifications.

Make Employees Successful

Close the training gap by reinforcing session material. Keep session attendees engaged with polls and surveys. Make note-taking effortless and upload presentations for immediate access.

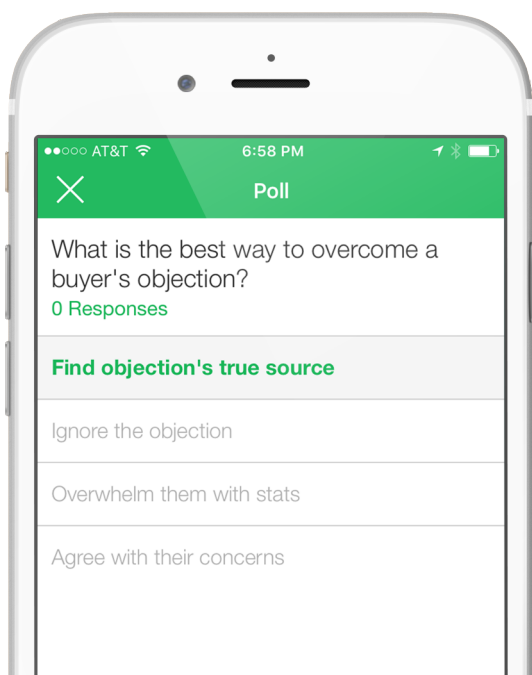

Drive Purposeful Connections

Create networking opportunities within a complete, private social network. Build a strong team by connecting employees based on areas of expertise, interests, and more.

[DoubleDutch] fostered a Rite Aid community for all in attendance and it enabled them to share recognition for one another and excitement for the coming year.

Keep the Team Engaged

Create a memorable and engaging kickoff with in-app gamification. Generate friendly leaderboard competition with points and badges and identify top influencers at the same time.

Inspire Meaningful Action

Amplify company vision and team goals in the activity feed. Encourage employees to celebrate each other and share best practices, through status updates, photos, and comments.

Improve Every Meeting

Get immediate feedback and make proactive changes on the fly. Improve the next meeting by uncovering insights on training sessions, speakers, attendee happiness, and more.
