

Powering Student Success

With Digital Personalized Learning Solutions

We believe all students can realize their full potential with the right support. Realizeit's personalized learning system empowers you to provide that support—in a way that integrates your unique teaching philosophy, subject expertise, and pedagogical preferences. In addition to implementation support, Realizeit's system includes tools and technologies to make it easy for you to help learners achieve mastery.

Engaging and Motivating Learners

Transform your students from passive to active learners with Realizeit's dynamic learning experience and real-time feedback. Students become more engaged and motivated in courses powered by Realizeit, resulting in higher achievement.

Empowering Educators

Teach to the individual, not the masses. With complete visibility into individual student knowledge, learning behavior and progress in real time, you can easily adapt your instruction to help every student complete a course or program successfully.

Providing Support

Implementing personalized learning experiences impacts the classroom environment, teaching practices, student expectations, and institutional culture. Realizeit's team of learning, technology, and change-management experts provides you with the tools and support to manage those changes.

We guide you every step of the way, from gaining institutional support for personalized learning, through course adaptation and implementation, to self-sufficiency.

Convert Your Classroom into an Active Learning Center

A Complete and Customizable Solution

Realizeit gives you greater control of your teaching, curriculum, and classroom. We provide an easy-to-use customizable solution for authoring, publishing, and delivering courses to meet your specific instructional needs. It's also scalable and versatile for institution-wide adoption with any subject, content or context—from simple modules to full programs. With Realizeit, you now have a personalized, adaptive learning system that helps every student achieve success, generates quality outcomes at scale, and is cost effective.

We Start by Adapting to You

We start by learning your objectives, preferences, challenges, and barriers around teaching and learning. Then, we plan your Realizeit implementation to fit your specific ecosystem, embedding intelligence into your infrastructure.

From strategy to launch and beyond, our team of learning, implementation and technology experts help you manage every aspect of the process. We help meet your needs whether you're personalizing learning for specific courses, departments, whole programs or across your entire organization.

Branded Learning Experiences

Design personalized learning courses or programs with your trademark brand, quality and content. We make it easy for you to customize learning using Realizeit's intelligent authoring tools, support and expertise, while you retain full academic ownership and control.

We Connect You to a Community of Collaborators

Working with Realizeit connects you to a community of progressive educators around the world already working with our platform. Contribute your expertise, ask questions, share successful practices in using adaptive learning technology, and seek value-added partnerships.
